

Anpu Unicom Optical Cable Manufacturer

Article Overview

Anpu Cable Group and UNICOM are leading manufacturers in industrial and networking optical cables, serving global markets with high-quality fiber optic and structured cabling solutions.

Anpu Cable Group

Wuhan Anpu Cable Group, founded in 1998, is a Chinese OEM manufacturer specializing in industrial control cables, low-voltage power cables, and data transmission cables, including optical fiber solutions for Southeast Asia, Africa, and other international markets . The company emphasizes intelligent manufacturing, strict quality control, and compliance with IEC standards such as IEC 60502-1 (XLPE power cables) and IEC 60227 (PVC flexible cables), . Product offerings include:

- Power cables: For transmission from generation/distribution points to equipment and substations .
- Control cables: Carry low-energy signals for automation and PLC systems .
- Data transmission cables: Specialized for telecommunications and industrial data networks . Anpu supports custom specifications, multi-core and shielded designs, and long-term supply for distributors, EPC contractors, and industrial clients worldwide . Their focus on R&D (5% annual investment) ensures stable quality and fast delivery.
