Article Overview

Leading suppliers of secondary distribution boxes in Cambodia include K-Pack Industrial Bavet, Holidaypac Cambodia, and Harta Packaging Industries, offering high-quality cartons, poly bags, and customizable packaging solutions.

Key Companies

K-Pack Industrial Bavet Co., Ltd Established in 2014, K-Pack Industrial Bavet specializes in manufacturing a wide range of packaging products including carton boxes, corrugated sheets, poly bags, and shrink films. They offer both printed and plain packaging options and have extensive production capacity with machines for flexo printing, slotting, gluing, and die-cutting, making them suitable for large-scale secondary distribution needs. Their workforce includes international and local staff, ensuring quality control and customer service standards are met . Holidaypac Cambodia Founded in 2018, Holidaypac Cambodia focuses on customizable and eco-friendly packaging solutions, including cardboard displays and secondary distribution boxes. They cater to both local and global markets, emphasizing sustainable materials and high-quality production. Their offerings are ideal for companies seeking environmentally responsible packaging for distribution purposes . Harta Packaging Industries (Cambodia) Limited Located in Phnom Penh, Harta is a leading manufacturer of corrugated cartons and plastic bags with a production capacity of approximately 3,000 MT of corrugated boards and cartons per month. They provide end-to-end services from concept and design to printing and warehousing, ensuring timely delivery of secondary distribution boxes. Harta also emphasizes workforce training and inventory management to maintain consistent supply and quality
