

Comoros Secondary Distribution Box Manufacturer

Article Overview

Machineequipments and Five Suns EcoEnergy are leading manufacturers of secondary distribution boxes in Comoros, offering both standard and customized solutions suitable for indoor and outdoor use.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

Machineequipments is a prominent Comorian manufacturer of power distribution equipment, including secondary distribution boxes. Their products are designed for both standard and customized applications, with options suitable for solar energy systems, car charging stations, and industrial installations. The distribution boxes are made of stainless steel with transparent PC covers, ensuring durability and weather resistance for outdoor use (FSE) . Five Suns EcoEnergy & Telecom Systems (FSE) provides a range of outdoor telecommunication cabinets and XRM lighting distribution boxes, which are lightweight and suitable for secondary distribution in various industries. Their products include IP54 and IP65 rated enclosures, DIN rails, bus bars, and circuit breaker integration, making them ideal for both construction sites and industrial facilities in Comoros .

Product Features

- Materials: Stainless steel, PC transparent covers, and ABS plastic for weatherproof models .
- Protection Ratings: IP54 to IP66, suitable for outdoor and indoor installations
