

Contact the manufacturer for North Korean electrical distribution boxes

Article Overview

Direct contact with North Korean manufacturers is restricted due to international sanctions, but South Korean suppliers offer comparable electrical distribution boxes.

Legal Considerations

Due to United Nations and U.S. sanctions, commercial transactions with North Korean manufacturers are prohibited. Attempting to contact or import equipment from North Korea could result in severe legal consequences, including fines and criminal liability.

Alternative Suppliers

Several South Korean companies manufacture and distribute high-quality electrical distribution boxes and enclosures suitable for industrial, commercial, and residential applications:

- HWASIN Industrial Systems: Offers steel, stainless steel, plastic, aluminum, and explosion-proof enclosures with international certifications such as UL, TUV, CE, IECEx, and ATEX. Contact: 60, Maengdongsandan 1-gil, Mangdong-myun, Eumseong-gun, Chungcheongbuk-do, Republic of Korea, Tel: 82-43-877-3611 .
- Shinsung Industrial Electric: Produces a wide range of power distribution equipment including switchgear, load break switches, and microprocessor-based relays. They supply products to Korea Electric Power Corporation (KEPCO) and have global distribution capabilities
