

New Zealand Lighting Distribution Box Supplier

Article Overview

Clive Wilson Switchboards and Vynco are leading manufacturers of lighting and power distribution boards in New Zealand, offering custom solutions for commercial and industrial applications.

Clive Wilson Switchboards

Clive Wilson Switchboards, based in Invercargill, has been manufacturing custom lighting and power distribution boards since 1971. They specialize in boards for commercial and industrial buildings, including offices, retail, hospitals, schools, and multi-tenancy apartments. Their boards are built on Schneider Prisma Plus G platforms, fully compliant with AS/NZS 61439, and are available in wall-mounted or floor-standing configurations with ratings up to 630A. They offer modular, expandable designs, indoor and outdoor enclosures, and nationwide delivery . Key features include:

- Full in-house design, fabrication, wiring, and testing
- ISO 9001:2015 quality assurance
- Custom boards coordinated with electrical engineers and main contractors
- Competitive pricing directly from the manufacturer
