

Ranking of Italian Cable Tray Supports and Brackets

Article Overview

Leading Italian cable tray supports and brackets are offered by Spina Group/Schiavetti Tekno, FEMI-CZ, and INDEX, known for high-quality, durable, and versatile solutions for industrial and infrastructure installations.

Top Italian Manufacturers and Their Offerings

1. Spina Group / Schiavetti Tekno Schiavetti Tekno, part of Spina Group, is a long-established Italian manufacturer of cable trays and accessories since 1964 . Their product range includes stainless steel, galvanised, and wire-mesh cable trays in ladder, perforated, closed, and wire-mesh types. They provide custom sizes and compatibility with Unistrut systems, ensuring modularity and flexibility. Their supports and brackets include angle beams, steel brackets, and support plates, engineered for high load capacity, vibration resistance, and corrosion protection. Accessories like clamps, cover clamps, and expansion components facilitate easy assembly and maintenance . 2. FEMI-CZ FEMI-CZ specializes in customized metallic cable tray solutions for large industrial and civil installations . Their offerings include solid bottom, ladder, and mesh trays with high load capacities suitable for medium and large section cables. They provide a wide range of supports, brackets, fastening accessories, and special screws, allowing flexible system layouts. FEMI-CZ also caters to specialized sectors such as naval installations and oil & gas, emphasizing productivity, flexibility, and ease of installation . 3. INDEX INDEX provides a versatile range of profiles and supports for cable trays, suitable for electrical, telecommunications, and pipeline installations . Their modular systems allow suspe...
