

Which company makes the best outdoor electrical distribution boxes in Western Europe

Overview

The top distribution box manufacturers in 2025 are SENTOP, Schneider Electric, Rockwell Automation, Hammond Manufacturing, Laiwo Electrical, J&HW Group, Siemens, ABB, Eaton, Legrand, and General Electric. These companies make rules for safety and performance. Used to house electrical or electronic switchgear, control gear and equipment necessary to supply, distribute and transform electricity. Intended for the industrial sector as a machine. Our outdoor electrical enclosures are designed for year-round protection in challenging environments. We offer IP66 weatherproof protection and corrosion-resistant stainless steel to keep your sensitive components safe against water, dust, and extreme temperatures.
